

LAURIE L. HOPKINS

Based in our St. Louis office, Laurie has more than 35 years of experience in public accounting, including 18 years with Arthur Andersen. Laurie advises clients on design, implementation and assessment of their accounting and financial reporting processes and their systems of internal control as well as compliance with GAAP and financial reporting best practices. Having served clients of all sizes and in a number of industries over the years, Laurie now focuses on serving privately held middle market companies and Not-for-Profit organizations. Her strong client relationships are grounded in an understanding of each client's operational needs and specific issues. These relationships are based on on-going communication to proactively identify and resolve accounting, reporting or audit related issues.
