

CHARLES K. “CHARLIE” CLEVENGER

Principal, UHY Consulting

Email: cclevenger@uhy-us.com

Direct: +1 248 321 4942

INDUSTRY EXPERTISE:

- Procurement strategy and structure
- Complex supply chains
- Operations management
- Total Value Management
- Business turnaround and leadership
- Acquisition integration

ACTIVE & PRIOR CIVIC MEMBERSHIPS:

- Board of Pontiac, Michigan International Technology Academy School Foundation
- City of Pontiac Public/Private Coalition
- Big Brothers (prior)

Charles K. “Charlie” Clevenger is a principal in UHY Consulting, providing operational excellence solutions that strengthen and transform organizations. His specialties include complex supply chain, procurement strategy and structure, operations management, and total value management analysis, and solutions. He also has significant experience collaboratively integrating these areas into the overall business to optimize performance and financial results.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

- Global business leadership experience, including Chief Procurement Officer responsibilities in supply chain, procurement, operations management, total value management, and P&L with cost, and organizational responsibility up to $9 billion and 500+ professionals.
- Over eight (8) years living and working in Europe and China.
- Experience and knowledge across multiple industrial sectors including automotive, commercial vehicle, industrial equipment, defense, HVAC, and adjacent sectors.
- Complex global business leadership applying automotive technologies in adjacent markets.
- Awarded highest honor by China Supply Chain Institute two consecutive years (only industrial company to achieve this level of recognition).
- Acquisition evaluation and accretive integration of numerous companies from $50 million to $1 billion on annual revenue.
- Organizational restructuring and optimization on both the regional and global levels.
- Procurement and supply chain side ERP implementation leadership across more than 40 manufacturing sites in Europe, Middle East, and Africa.
- Collaborative government policy development in combination with business strategy.

BACKGROUND:

- More than 35 years of industrial experience, including 20+ years of executive level global experience in the areas of supply chain management, procurement, operations management, program management, and business leadership while living in North America, Europe, and China.
- Education: BS Industrial Management and minor in Industrial Engineering with honors Purdue University, West Lafayette, IN. Executive level business and management development programs at Kellogg Graduate School of Management (Northwestern University), Thunderbird School of Global Management, and Eckerd.

THOUGHT LEADERSHIP:

- Global speaking engagements on global procurement and supply chain management and strategy including the AIAG Asia Pacific annual conference, Automotive Component Manufacturers Association of India (ACMA) conference, Russian Automotive Show, and North American seminars and conferences.
- Contrepoints Journal-Coronavirus: les couts economique et humain sont bien reels; 4 Fevrier 2020